THE Denton Chronicle is proud to announce, and justly so, that Denton has the largest public school in the state. The status of a community is determined by the subject in which it takes pride.

MESQUITE is improving. They are erecting another church there. This churches for Mesquite, which is not bad.

Tex idea that Wichita Falls will be injured by the growth of Harrold is pointless. None understand this better than the citizens of the Falls themselves. It has a court-house in progress costing $35,000, and in every respect is a live, progressive and thrifty little city.

It is a fact not entirely credited, but yet strictly true, that Wise county, outside of Dalias and Fort Worth, has a more valuable and better settled farm ing territory than either Dallas or Tarrant county. When shall we salute them as nearest of neighbors with the voice of the steam horse?
